NOW, THEREFORE, be it resolved that the Dublin Borough Council hereby authorizes the disposal of small value personal property items by the Borough Manager or Chief of Police at their discretion, pursuant to the procedure as outlined, as follows:

Section 1. Council hereby authorizes the following:

1. The Borough Manager or his/her designee shall establish a fair market value of the surplus personal property by using any of the following procedures:

- b. Use one similarly marketed item to determine the value.
- c. Obtain value from industry sources (such as Kelley Blue Book) or insurance claim information.
- d. Such other procedure or evaluation in the Borough Manager's or Chief of Police's discretion that may be employed to determine a reasonable estimation of fair market value taking into consideration the circumstances of the personal property to be sold including such things as age, use and type.

2. Unnecessary or surplus personal property that has met a useful lifespan, or no longer holds competitive fair market value, such as certain electronic devices, or items that will be disposed of through a professional recycling or buy-back program may be sold directly, without following the procedure hereinbefore.

Section 2. In the event any provision, section, sentence, clause, or part of this Resolution shall be held to be invalid, illegal, or unconstitutional by a court of competent jurisdiction, such invalidity, illegality, or unconstitutionality shall not affect or impair the remaining provisions,
